

RMDS Constitution & By-Laws
(As Amended November 14, 2015)

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the organization shall be ROCKY MOUNTAIN DRESSAGE SOCIETY, INC.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

A. Purpose: Mission Statement

1. The Rocky Mountain Dressage Society exists to maintain a high standard of accomplishment in the region through educational support in Dressage. As a USDF Group Member Organization, RMDS is dedicated to providing educational programs to encourage quality horsemanship and horse welfare throughout our membership.
2. The activities of the Society are limited to those activities consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. The objectives of the Society are:

1. To improve the general understanding of dressage by conducting shows, educational clinics, forums and seminars, and to promote these and other activities to effect this goal;
2. To assist and cooperate with local, regional, and national dressage organizations in matters of common concern;
3. To cooperate with the United States Dressage Federation, Inc., US Eventing Association, US Equestrian Federation, Olympic Equestrian Games Committee, United States Pony Clubs, Inc., and other national organizations having an interest in training horses, riders, and judges in the principles of dressage; and
4. To guarantee fair representation to all members in forming policies and in the management of the society.

C. Limitations: The activities of the Society in pursuit of its Purpose and objective are limited as follows:

1. The Society shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the Society shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

ARTICLE III. EXECUTIVE OFFICE ADDRESS

The address of the executive office of the Society shall be as determined by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP AND REPRESENTATION

A. Membership:

1. Membership in the Society and its Chapters is open to all persons regardless of religion, race, color, creed, sex, age, or national origin.
2. Membership in the Society and its Chapters shall be of the following classes: individual, family, contributing, life, and business. The benefits of each class shall be specified in the Standing Rules of the Society and shall apply for the membership period for which they have paid. The membership classes are defined as follows:
 - a. INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS are persons who have paid their annual individual dues and assessments as specified in the Standing Rules of the Society.
 - b. FAMILY MEMBERS are persons who have paid the annual family dues and assessments as specified in the Standing Rules of the Society. They must be domiciled with and living as a family with an Individual member of the Society.
 - c. LIFE MEMBERS are persons who have contributed an amount specified in the Standing Rules of the Society. They shall be exempt from further dues and assessments from either the Society or its Chapters. They may at their discretion, change Chapter affiliations without fee.
 - d. BUSINESS MEMBERS are business entities who have paid their annual dues and assessments as stated in the Standing Rules of the Society.
 - e. EDUCATION MEMBERS are persons who have paid their annual individual dues and assessments as specified in the Standing Rules of the Society. (Non-competing member)
3. Upon joining the Society, members shall select a Chapter to represent their interests in forming Society policies and in managing the Society. Should a member fail to select a Chapter, he/she shall be assigned to a Chapter at the discretion of the RMDS Central Office. Members may change Chapter affiliation by notifying the RMDS Central Office in writing of their desire.

4. Members may be warned, censored, denied privileges, fined, or have their membership revoked without return of membership dues and assessments for violating Society rules or standards as specified in the Standing Rules. Conditions and procedures for each disciplinary action shall be stated in the Standing Rules of the Society.

B. Chapters:

1. Chapters shall be formed to represent the interests of members in forming Society policies and in managing the Society, to promote educational activities on the local level, and to carry out plans of the Society for local competitions. A Chapter must hold at least four meetings each year with at least one open membership business meeting to be recognized by the Society.
2. A Chapter may be recognized upon approval of the Executive Board when it has at least ten (10) dues-paying members and has written procedures or By-Laws, which are not in conflict with the By-Laws of the Society.
3. All members of a Chapter must be members of the Society in good standing.
If a Chapter board member who is elected by the membership is not a member of RMDS in good standing by the January RMDS Board meeting or at the time of election if elected midterm, they can not take office and will not be included in the D&O insurance and not recognized as a board member (RMDS or Chapter) and no other member can take that responsibility unless elected by the membership or Executive Board.
4. A copy of each Chapter's current By-Laws must be filed with the Secretary of the Society.
5. Each Chapter shall elect its own officers. It is the responsibility of these officers, as representatives of the membership, to encourage and organize, at the local level, educational activities to help members advance the training of themselves and their horses. The President of the Chapter will be responsible for reporting to the Secretary of the Society the details of all Chapter activities.
6. A Chapter shall annually elect from its membership delegates to the Society's Board of Governors. At a Board of Governors meeting, each Chapter shall be entitled to one (1) vote for every twenty (20) members or fraction there-of. Each Chapter shall notify in writing the Secretary of the Society as to how its voting rights are distributed amongst its delegates.
7. Chapters shall be responsible for the management of their own funds.
8. A Chapter shall pay an initial recognition fee in the amount stated in the Standing Rules of the Society.

C. Removal of Chapter Recognition: Any Chapter may lose Society recognition when any of the following conditions exist:

1. The number of Society members represented by the Chapter falls below ten (10) on June 15 of the current membership year
2. Whenever, in the judgment of the Executive Board, the best interests of the Society would be served thereby. Loss of Chapter recognition shall require a 2/3 vote of the Executive Board at a regularly scheduled Executive Board meeting. All members of the Executive Board must be sent written notification of the intention to move for the revocation of recognition at least ten (10) days prior to the Executive Board meeting where the vote will be taken.

D. Chapter Suspension: Any Chapter may be suspended from the Society in accordance with provisions specified in these By-Laws. The Society shall withhold all payment of the membership fees to a suspended Chapter; however, the withheld funds shall be paid to the Chapter once the suspension is lifted. Chapters shall not be entitled to Executive Board representation while suspended.

E. Voluntary Removal of Chapter Recognition

1. Any Chapter may dissolve itself according to the process described in the Standing Rules Section XI.
2. Dissolution of a Chapter must be done by a vote of the Chapter membership with two-thirds (2/3) majority.

ARTICLE V. DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

- A. Dues will be paid on an annual basis from January 1 through December 31. If a member joins the Society after October 1, his/her dues shall apply to the next membership year.
- B. Society dues and assessments will be reviewed annually and recommended by the Executive Board. The recommendations of the Executive Board will be presented to the Board of Governors for approval. Society dues, fees, and assessments shall be specified in the Standing Rules of the Society.
- C. Chapters may establish supplemental membership fees above those determined by RMDS.

ARTICLE VI. BOARD OF GOVERNORS

- A. The Board of Governors shall consist of Chapter delegate(s) who shall be elected to the Society's Board of Governors under procedures established by each Chapter. Failure of a Chapter to notify the Secretary of the Society in writing of the names(s) of its delegate(s) prior to the start of a Board of Governors meeting will constitute a forfeiture of representation of the Board of Governors at the meeting.

- B. The Board of Governors shall act as the governing and policy making body of the Society.
- C. The Board of Governors shall elect the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairpersons of the Permanent Committees from the nominees presented by the Nominating Committee or from nominations made from the floor.
- D. The Board of Governors shall hold at least one annual meeting and such interim meetings as may be called by the President. Except for personnel discussions, meetings of the Board of Governors may be attended by any member of the society; however, only Delegates to the Board of Governors may vote.
- E. At all meetings of the Board of Governors, 66% of the voting rights of all Chapters as of the last day of the month previous to the meeting shall constitute a quorum.
- F. Members of the Board of Governors may vote by proxy executed in writing and filed with the Secretary of the Board of Governors. Said proxy may be made by telegram, fax, letter, or electronic mail.

ARTICLE VII. OFFICERS

- A. The elected officers of the Board of Governors being, President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall act in their respective capacities as the officers of the Society.
