

RMDS Standing Rules

(As Amended November 15, 2014)

SECTION I. JUDGES

The Rocky Mountain Dressage Society (RMDS) shall develop and maintain a list of recognized dressage judges. Two (2) categories of individuals are eligible to be recognized as judges at RMDS recognized shows

- A. Any judge recognized by US Equestrian Federation or any FEI or foreign judge holding registration for judging dressage in his/her own country is recognized by RMDS.
- B. Any USDF "L" Graduate or any judge recognized by the USDF who is in compliance with the RMDS "L" Graduate Judges recognized officials program (Section VII.) shall be recognized by RMDS

SECTION II. TECHNICAL DELEGATES

The Society shall develop and maintain a list of recognized Dressage Technical Delegates. Two (2) categories of individuals are recognized as RMDS approved Technical Delegates. The duties of the RMDS Dressage Technical Delegate at RMDS approved shows are equivalent to those of the US Equestrian Federation Technical Delegate as outlined in the current US Equestrian Federation Rule Book.

- A. Any US Equestrian Federation or FEI approved Dressage or Combined Training Technical Delegate or Steward may officiate at RMDS only recognized competitions.
- B. Any approved RMDS Technical Delegate who is in compliance with the RMDS Technical Delegates program (Section VI) for continuing recognition may officiate at competitions recognized only by RMDS.

SECTION III. RMDS RECOGNIZED/APPROVED COMPETITIONS

A dressage competition shall be recognized by the Society if the following requirements are met:

- A. A show may advertise as RMDS recognized after the RMDS Central Office has approved an application. RMDS recognized/sanctioned shows/events are required to carry insurance and must provide the RMDS Central Office with a certificate of insurance for each day of the competition with minimum limits of $1,000,000 third party general liability insurance with RMDS listed as certificate holder, or the equivalent of the current RMDS insurance policy at least 2 weeks prior to the show/event date. Failure to do so will result in revocation of recognition.
- B. The competition dates must be published in the Society's newsletter (Centaur) or the Omnibus at least two weeks prior to the open date(s) of the competition. A prize list must be available to RMDS members at least 2 weeks prior to the opening date of the competition.
- C. A recognition fee, set by the Executive Board, must accompany the application for recognition of each competition. USDF Region V Championship, JR/YR Team Championships, Adult Amateur Team Championships, and the RMDS Championship Shows are exempt from this fee.
- D. All RMDS recognized competitions must be open to all members in good standing of the Society and to all equines. Exceptions to this rule are the USDF Region V Championship, JR/YR Team Championships, and Adult Amateur Team Championships, which shall be restricted to the named divisions.
- E. Applications for recognition of all previously approved competitions for the next competition year are due to the RMDS Central Office no later than November 1 of the current calendar year. Applications for recognition from previously approved competitions that are postmarked after November 1 will be assessed a late fee of $25. All late fees will be assessed based on the postmark of the application.
- F. A previously approved competition is defined as any competition held on comparable dates, by the same organization, within the last two (2) calendar years as an established recognized competition.
- G. The show manager must be a member in good standing of RMDS.
- H. The show secretary must be a member in good standing of RMDS.
- I. Judges recognized by the Society must judge the competition.
- J. The competition must acquire the services of an RMDS or US Equestrian Federation recognized technical delegate.
- K. RMDS only recognized shows will be run in accordance to USEF Dressage Competition Level One Rules.
- L. At RMDS only recognized shows; all US Equestrian Federation rules regarding competitions shall be followed with the following exceptions:
 - 1. The telephone numbers of the nearest emergency facility and an ambulance service must be posted at the show office.
 - 2. The distance between RMDS recognized competitions held on the same date shall be a minimum of 50 miles. To determine the distance between competitions, the distance shall be measured in a straight line between the road intersections that are closest to the actual competition locations using a map drawn to scale by AAA, Rand McNally or USGS.

3. RMDS does not require the horse, owner or rider to be members of RMDS in order to show. Points for year-end awards or qualifying scores for Championships will not accrue until horse, rider and owner are current members of RMDS in good standing.
 4. Pony Measurement: RMDS does not require a veterinarian be present for pony measurements. Pony measurements may be conducted at RMDS ONLY recognized competitions by the technical delegate and the presiding judge with a USEF approved and numbered measuring stick. A veterinarian may be used instead of a judge if the competition desires, but it is not required.
 5. Allow Western Dressage classes, exempting USEF rule DR121.1 for those classes only.
- M. RMDS Recognized Competition Approval:
1. Chapter sponsored competitions that are presented and recognized at the RMDS Fall Board of Governors meeting shall have their dates protected for one year.
 2. All non-chapter competition dates including those for previously approved competitions will be assigned each year by the RMDS Central Office on a first-postmarked basis.
 3. Chapter protected competitions that wish to permanently change their competition dates must send written notification of their intent to the RMDS Central Office for approval in accordance with the current Standing rules.
 4. Show recognition applications, which were not recognized at the RMDS Fall Board of Governors meeting, shall be approved on a first-postmarked application basis. Additional competition recognition applications for the same date shall be approved according to US Equestrian Federation rules.
 5. The Executive Board shall resolve any conflicts over competition dates.
6. RMDS shall not recognize any competition, which has indebtedness to RMDS or is not in good standing. Good standing is determined by the Recognized Official Committee based upon the Technical Delegate report.
- N. The RMDS Competition Year will remain consistent with that of the United States Dressage Federation
- O. Show management must submit legible dressage scores or USDF Dressage Sport Horse Breed (DSHB) show scores for RMDS recognized competitions to the designated address within fourteen (14) days following the competition. All scores submitted must include horse name and RMDS number, rider name and RMDS number. If scores are not received within thirty (30) days of the last day of the competition, a penalty charge of $50.00 will be assessed. All violators will be published in the Society's newsletter.

SECTION IV. RMDS SANCTIONED EVENTS

- A. An RMDS sanctioned event is any event other than a recognized dressage competition, which has met the requirements specified. Examples include schooling shows, workshops, seminars, clinics, etc.
- B. The RMDS Sanctioned Status allows the sponsoring group to take advantage of RMDS benefits (insurance, RMDS mailing list, etc.).
- C. Requirements:
 1. Application and fees (set by the Executive Board) must be submitted to the RMDS Central Office at least 4 weeks prior to the event.
 2. Proof of insurance coverage must be submitted and verified (i.e. either applied and paid for through RMDS or a copy of the event's insurance request showing RMDS as a certificate holder to RMDS policy limits has been filed with the RMDS Central Office).

SECTION V. AWARDS - YEAR END

- A. Eligibility:
 1. Only scores from competitions recognized by the Society may be used in determining Year-End Awards.
 2. Only current members of the Society in good standing shall be eligible to receive Society Year End Awards.
Members who have failed to return or make restitution for missing/damaged perpetual trophies from the previous year, by Oct 20 of the current year, shall not be considered in good standing and will therefore not be eligible for Society Year End Awards.
 3. Only scores earned when the rider is a current member of the Society in good standing may be used in determining Year-End Awards. Eligibility begins with the date membership renewal fee (for continuing members) or the membership application and fee (for new members) is received by the RMDS Central Office. Scores from competitions prior to that date will not be applied to Society Year-End Awards. The burden of proof of membership status is on the rider. Acceptable proof will be a photocopy RMDS membership card, the front and back of a canceled check, the front and back of a deposited money order, or other similar document.
 4. Only a horse owned or leased by and ridden by a current member of the Society in good standing shall be eligible to receive Society Year-End Awards. (The rider need not be the owner or lessee.) In the event of a horse under multiple ownership, only one owner need be a member of the Society. Proof of partial ownership by a member must be provided to the RMDS Central Office. Scores will count from the date proof of partial ownership is received by the RMDS Central Office.

5. All horses must be registered with the RMDS Central Office for scores to be applied to any Society Year-End Award. Eligibility begins with the date the registration application and fee is received by the RMDS Central Office. Scores from competitions prior to that date will not be applied to Society Year-End Awards. The burden of proof of horse registration is on the owner/lessee of the horse. Acceptable proof will be a photocopy of the RMDS Horse Registration Card, a photocopy of the front and back of a canceled check, or other similar document. The horse registration fee is specified in Section VIII of these Standing Rules.
 6. Scores will be recorded directly from the official competition results submitted by competition management. Scores* must be from current US Equestrian Federation, FEI, Advanced Young Rider, USDF Pas de Deux, or USDF Quadrille tests earned in RMDS Recognized Competitions. If two or more judges are scoring one ride, the average of their scores will count as one score. (*Hors de Concours scores do not count) Scores must be from Open, Junior/Young Rider, Adult Amateur, or RMDS Championship classes to count for Horse of the Year, Special Awards or Horse of the Year-Freestyle awards. Scores may be from Open, Junior/Young Rider, or Adult Amateur classes to count for Rider Awards.
 7. All riders are responsible for verifying and documenting their scores with the RMDS Central Office prior to September 30 of the competition year. If scores are not checked, RMDS and/or the Awards Chairperson are not responsible for any errors that may occur.
 8. Class Definitions:
 - a. Open Class- a class, which is open to all. There are no restrictions based on the horse (e.g., age, breed, sex, size, previous performance, residence or membership of owner) or rider (e.g., age, experience, qualification, sex, residence, or membership).
 - b. Adult/Amateur classes or divisions are open to riders who have or will reach their 22nd birthday of the current calendar year. A current US Equestrian Federation Amateur Card shall be required as proof of amateur status.
 - c. Junior/Young Rider classes are classes open to Junior and Young Riders as defined in the current US Equestrian Federation Rule Book.
 - i. Junior classes or divisions are open to riders who are Junior Riders as defined in DR119.3 & 119.4 of the current US Equestrian Federation Rule Book.
 - ii. Young Rider classes or divisions are open to riders who are Young Riders as defined in DR119.3 of the current US Equestrian Federation Rule Book.
 - iii. US Equestrian Federation Qualifying classes are open to riders who meet the requirements specified in DR127 of the current US Equestrian Federation Rule Book
 - iv. Quadrille classes are open to even groups of riders as defined by the USDF quadrille rules.
 - v. Pas de Deux classes are open to pairs of riders as defined by the USDF Pas de Deux rules.
- B. The Award Year will be the same as the Competition Year specified in Section III of these Standing Rules.
- C. All eligible scores will be recorded, and the top 80% of these scores will be used in calculating the median. (The median is the middle score when all scores are ranked from highest to lowest. For an even number of scores, the two middle scores are added together and divided by two.) The median must be 55% or higher to qualify for an award. This method of computation will be used for all levels, including FEI and Freestyle.
- D. Rider Awards:
 1. An engraved plate will be awarded at the RMDS annual banquet for scores of 60% or better for Training Level and above. Scores must be earned at RMDS recognized shows. Scores must be earned from current US Equestrian Federation or FEI tests. No scores from restricted classes (e.g.: breed classes, USDF Championship classes, etc.) shall count towards RMDS Year-End Awards.
 2. If 5 scores or more of 60% or better are accrued in any one show year, a plaque will be awarded with engraved plates of the number of scores for each horse. In subsequent years, the engraved plate, which may be attached to the plaque, will be awarded to riders receiving one or more scores of 60% or better.
 3. Plaques to which the engraved plate may be attached will be made available to 60% score award recipients at a cost to be determined by the Executive Board.
- E. Perpetual Trophies:
 1. Perpetual trophies are the property of RMDS and are loaned to the recipient contingent upon the signing of a contract specifying penalties for late return, damage or loss of the trophy. Trophies must be returned by Oct. 1 to the RMDS Awards Chairperson. A keeper ribbon will be provided by RMDS.

2. The RMDS Awards Committee shall be responsible for managing all perpetual trophies. Additional perpetual trophies may be defined by the Awards Committee and added to the list of awards. Only trophies, which are the property of RMDS (either from donation to or purchase by) may be included in the Award Program. RMDS Executive Board approval is required in order to add or drop trophies from the list. The Awards Committee shall ensure the list of perpetual trophies is published in the Omnibus.
 3. New RMDS Awards requires that there be a minimum of 5 competitors in any chosen level or division in order for the Executive Board to consider approval of said award. This policy applies to all Horse of the Year Awards and Breed Awards. As the Executive Board must approve all new awards, our policy is that any new awards must be presented to the Awards Chairman by the end of June of the competition year. In order to be presented in the current competition year, new awards must be voted on in the July Executive Board meeting. Any award proposals made after June will not be presented and voted on until the following year.
 4. Horse of the Year Perpetual Trophies will be awarded at the RMDS annual banquet to horse/rider combinations based on the median scores from at least three (3) shows, four (4) judges and five (5) rides. Two (2) of the scores must be at least 55% at the most difficult test of the level and at least two (2) of the shows must be recognized by US Equestrian Federation. The median must be 55% or higher to qualify for an award. FEI levels will be based on four (4) shows, four (4) judges and four (4) rides. The median must be at least 55% or higher to qualify for an award.
 5. Horse of the Year - Freestyle Perpetual Trophies shall be awarded at the RMDS Annual Banquet to a horse/rider combination, which have the highest median. The combination must have received a minimum of 3 scores during the current season and the median must be at least 55%.
 6. Special Perpetual Trophies have been donated by members of RMDS. Each such trophy has specific qualifications for presentation. Special Perpetual Trophy recipients will be determined on the basis that a horse/rider combination has reached the minimum of 3 shows/4 judges and 5 scores. A high median score will be the winner - no minimum median score will be required unless it is stated as such in each individual guideline.
 - a. Special Perpetual Trophies must be applied for by September 30 of the competition year. Send a letter to the Awards Chairperson indicating which special awards you wish to apply for. Exception: For some awards no application is necessary and will be stated as such.
 - b. For RMDS Special Perpetual Trophies that have age requirements not covered by US Equestrian Federation/USDF guidelines, age will be determined at the start of the competition year.
 7. Special Breed Awards:
 - a. Horses must register with only 1 breed affiliation for year-end Breed Awards. Horses may not cross enter breed registries.
 - b. Breed papers must be on file with RMDS central office. Grade horses do not require papers to be on file but must be stated as grade with central office.
 - c. Only one breed award per breed classification.
 - d. New breed awards may be added if there are a minimum of 5 horses of the requested breed affiliation competing and meeting minimum qualifying requirements. RMDS Executive board must also approve the addition of the new award.
- F. Sport Horse Breeding Show Year End Awards

 - d. Only horses owned or leased by a current member of the Society in good standing shall be eligible to receive Society Year End Awards.
 - e. All horses must be registered with RMDS prior to the earning of the scores for those scores to count toward Society Year End Awards.
 - f. All owners are responsible for verifying and documenting their scores with the Awards Chairperson prior to September 30 of the competition year. If scores are not checked, RMDS and/or the Awards Chairperson are not responsible for any errors that may occur.
 - g. Scores will be recorded directly from the official competition results submitted by competition management. If two or more judges scoring the same class, the average of their scores will count as one score regardless of whether judges evaluate on the same or separate score sheets.

- h. Only the final adjusted percentage score (after callbacks) for each class will be counted.
- 2. Award Year.
The Award Year will be the same as the Competition Year specified in Section III of these Standing Rules.
- 3. Class Definitions
For competition purposes, the age of a horse is considered to be one year old on the first day of January following the actual date of foaling.
 - a. A Young Horse is one who is three (3) years of age or younger.
 - b. A Mature Horse is one who is four (4) years of age or older.
- 4. Horse Awards
 - a. Scores must be reported as a percentage using the current USDF DSHB score sheets, which are appropriate to each judging category.
 - b. All eligible scores are recorded and counted in the median, except as noted in 4c below.
 - c. All awards are based on the median score, which is the score exactly between the highest and lowest scores within a specified range of scores. If over five (5) scores are received in the same age category, only the top 80 percent of scores will be used to calculate the median score.
 - d. Horses must have a median score of 55% or higher to qualify for an award.
 - d. Scores from open and championship classes will count towards year-end awards. Classes for specific breeds will not count.
 - f. Open classes are defined as any class that is open to all horses within the specified age and sex group. There are no restrictions based on breed, size, previous performance, qualifications, residence, or membership in a particular breed association for the owner, breeder, or handler.
 - g. Hors de Concours scores do not count.
 - h. Year end Awards will be awarded to the horse with the highest median from at least three (3) scores, two (2) shows, and two (2) judges from any of the following categories:
 - i. Current Year Foal (Fillies & Colts/Geldings)
 - ii. Yearlings & Two Year Old Fillies & Colts/Geldings
 - iii. Three Year Old Fillies & Colts/Geldings
 - iv. Mares (Four Years Old & Older)
 - v. Stallions (Four Years Old & Older)
 - i. Keeper ribbons will be awarded to the Year End Award, Young Horse of the Year Award, and Mature Horse of the Year Award winners. If perpetual trophies are available, they will be awarded under the rules established in section V.E.1 and 2. The Year End Awards will be awarded at the RMDS Annual Awards Banquet.

2. Scores from Championship Classes shall count in the RMDS Awards Program
3. Horse/rider combinations may compete in Championship Classes at a maximum of 2 levels, which must be sequential.
4. For pony championships, scores can be earned in any rider's division class (AA, Open or Junior) as long as the pony is registered with RMDS as a pony and meets the standards stated in Sec XIV, B.5.
5. For Training through Fourth Level & First through Fourth Level Freestyle Championship Classes, horse/rider combinations are not eligible to compete in any Championship Classes if they have previously participated in any RMDS, US Equestrian Federation or USDF recognized competition at two or more levels higher. For FEI Championship Classes, horse/rider combinations may have previously competed at any FEI level.

6. Horse and rider combinations, which are champions from previous years and received an RMDS qualifying score in that championship class for Training Level through Fourth Level & Training Level through Fourth Level Freestyle, are not eligible to compete again in Championship Classes at the same level at which they were champions.

7. Except for Musical Freestyle Classes, the Annual Level Champions for Adult Amateur, JR/YR, and Open divisions will be determined by riding the highest test at the level that shall be judged by at least two (2) judges. The horse and rider combination with the highest average for each division at each level shall be the champions.

8. Musical Freestyle Level Champions shall be determined by riding a single freestyle test at the qualified level that shall be judged by at least two (2) judges. The horse/rider combination with the highest average score for the test at each level shall be the champion.

9. Only the rider that has qualified on a specific horse may ride that horse during the Championship Show (Only 1 rider per horse for the show)(groom with a loose rein excepted).

10. The championship awards shall be presented at the Championship Show in a formal awards ceremony. Failure of the horse and rider recipients to appear in costume and full tack for the ceremony (unless excused for cause by the show management) shall result in immediate disqualification. In event of disqualification, each affected award shall be presented to the next lower average score.

11. No whip may be carried by a rider in an RMDS Championship Class. (Exception: Riders riding sidesaddle may carry a whip in RMDS Championships.)

12. Championship tests must be ridden from memory.

13. Rider must submit a copy of their current US Equestrian Federation Adult Amateur card to be eligible to ride as an Adult Amateur.

14. In the event of a tie for Champion or Reserve Champion, the collective marks will determine 1st, 2nd and 3rd place. Otherwise a tie will remain unbroken.

B. Qualification For Dressage Championship Classes:

Championship Classes shall be open to all Society members in good standing who meet the qualifying criteria specified below:

1. Membership requirements: The horse, owner, & rider must be current RMDS members prior to qualifying rides.

2. If open classes are held, horse/rider combinations may qualify to ride in Championship Classes by receiving a qualifying score in a US Equestrian Federation open show class at the Championship show at the level of the Championship class to be shown and by having one (1) additional qualifying score from previous shows.

3. All entries that wish to ride in the Championship class at any level must enter the Championship class on or before the close date for entries for the Championship competition. This includes those riders who will try to earn their final qualifying score as defined above in 1. Post entries may be accepted at the discretion of show management.

4. If the horse/rider combination competes in a US Equestrian Federation open class and fails to receive the final qualifying score, the horse/rider combination will automatically be scratched from the championship class by show management. The rider will not be eligible to receive a refund for the championship class due to their failure to qualify.

5. Horse/rider combinations may qualify for Championship Classes by submitting scores meeting the following criteria:

- a. Only scores meeting the acceptance criteria of the RMDS Year-End Awards Program (see Section V. of these Standing Rules) may be used to qualify for the Championship Classes. These scores may be from any test at the specified level.
- b. Horse/rider combinations may qualify for Musical Freestyle Championship Classes by submitting two scores of 60% or higher from a recognized musical freestyle class at the same level from two shows and two judges.
- c. The horse/rider combination must receive two (2) qualifying scores from RMDS recognized competitions at the level of the Championship Class that they wish to qualify to ride in the current RMDS show year; one of the tests must be the highest test at that level. The scores must be from two (2) different judges at two (2) different shows. The minimum qualifying score for each level for RMDS Championships ONLY shall be (not to exceed USDF requirements):

	Level	Open	Adult Amateur	JR/YR
